1. Senator Luis A. Flores is reportedly of the opinion that Senator Alberto Ulloa is one of the most active members of the Senate group which is attempting to insure the return of enough senators to provide a quorum when Congress meets. Flores is critical of Ulloa because he does not believe him to be capable of understanding the significance of the recent Congressional fight. His reasons are based on the fact that Ulloa has spent so much time outside the country and that he has been too preoccupied with seeking a diplomatic post for himself. Flores characterizes his colleague as being "dishonest".
2. Senator Jose Antonio Encinas is reported to have presented a proposal to the President recently regarding Congress. This proposal involved a continuation of the current Congressional "strike" for ninety days and the appointment of a Parliamentary Cabinet, composed exclusively of members of the Legislature. This Cabinet would prepare the way for the reconvening of the Legislature by bringing about a closer relationship between the executive and the legislative branches of the Government during the preparatory period. It was understood that no Apristas would be included in the Cabinet.
